Author of "For Tigers Fans Only!" available for Book Signing at Paradise Park, Saturday, December 12, from Noon-2 p.m.

LEE'S SUMMIT, MO. – A special holiday gift for all fans, alumni and supporters of the University of Missouri is available at Paradise Park on Saturday, December 12, from Noon-2 p.m.

During that time, Rich Zvosec (pronounced zuh-VOH-sick), the co-author of the newly released book titled "For Tigers Fans Only: Wonderful Stories Celebrating the Incredible Fans of the University of Missouri Tigers," will be at Paradise Park for a book signing and have copies of the newest release available for sale.

The 240-page book is a must read for family and friends that bleed black and gold. Published in October and co-authored by Bill Althaus and Rich Wolfe, the book has first-person accounts from former players, coaches, celebrities, and Tiger fans. Mizzou is riding a string of recent success with four straight bowl seasons in football and a school record 31-wins in basketball with a Big 12 Championship in 2009.

Zvosec, otherwise known as "Coach Z", spent six seasons as the head basketball coach at UMKC. He was named the Mid-Continent Conference, the College Insider, and CBS Sportsline Coach-of-the-Year with the Kangaroos in 2005. A successful television basketball analyst for ESPN, speaker and author, Zvosec also will have copies of the book he authored and published in 2008 titled "Birds, Dogs and Kangaroos: Life on the Back Roads of College Basketball."

Guests at Paradise Park that bring a signed copy of either book to the ticket counter will receive $5 off a Pizza and Play Combo or $2 off a Max Pak, good for unlimited attractions in the facility for the entire day. Santa Claus will be in attendance at Paradise Park for the event as well.

Paradise Park is a family entertainment center that offers a unique mix of attractions, which includes a children's edutainment center and discovery play area. It is the only facility in the Midwest to offer both a children's edutainment center and a wide variety of entertainment attractions for all ages on the same site.
